Miss Norris Weds Rev.
Edw. Bates.

A FASHIONABLE CEREMONY

Married Yesterday Afternoon at the Residence of Mr. Frank Damon.

Amid clusters of blossoms of the golden shower and masses of marguerites, Miss Gertrude Louise Norris, of Corning, Iowa, and the Rev. Edward Bates Turner, of the faculty of Mills Institute, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Frank Damon, Chaplain lane, the Rev. J. Elmer Russell of the Institute officiating.

The bride was attended by the Misses Ruth and Laura Turner, sisters of the groom, while the Rev. John Pinney Erdman of this city and a former classmate at Princeton University, acted as best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Edwin M. Norris, who came from Philadelphia to attend the wedding. Mr. John Waterhouse and Mr. Hugh F. Sturtevant were the ushers.

The wedding took place in the large rooms and lanais of the second floor of Mr. Damon's residence, which was tastefully and appropriately decorated with flags of many nations, the lanais being entirely closed in by bunting.
The floral display in the main parlor was attractive and showed an originality of design, the color scheme being in yellow and white. The arched doorway was covered with maile and marguerites, from which was suspended a basket composed of ferns, white buds and lilies. At each side was a screen of greenery dotted with marguerites. Bos-soms of the golden shower were scattered in every room, adding a rich yellow glow to the general ensemble of color.

As the bridal party entered the parlors the Lohengrin wedding march was sung by the Mills Institute Glee Club, accompanied by Mr. Frank Damon on the piano and assisted by Mrs. Cornelia Damon and the Misses Ethel and Julia Damon.

After the service of the Episcopal church was finished, uniting the bride and groom, the Rev. William M. Kincaid of Central Union church pronounced the benediction. After receiving congratulations the bride and groom left for the depot, to spend their honeymoon at Waiatua, at Haleiwa Hotel. Showers of rice, flowers and laughter followed their flight from the residence. The bride was becomingly gowned in white organdie trimmed with valenciennes lace, and she carried a beautiful bou-quet of crepe gardenias and maidenhair.
She was as charming a summer bride as Honolulu has seen. The bridesmaids were likewise attired in white organdies and carried bouquets of yellow marguerites.

The bride arrived here on the steamer China, accompanied by her brother, Mr.
E. M. Norris, of Philadelphia. In the party were also three generations of Mr. Turner's family, who came to be present at the marriage. They were Mrs. R. A. Crippen of Los Angeles, grandmother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Turner, the Misses Ruth and Laura Turner and Master Ransom Turner, of Corning, Iowa.

A novelty in the ceremony was that of Rev. Mr. Russell performing the ceremony. He and the groom were roommates and classmates at the Union Theological Seminary of New York, while Rev. J. P. Erdman and Rev. Mr.
Turner graduated in the class of '96 from Princeton University.

Rev. and Mrs. Turner will be at home about the middle of this month at their home on Chaplain lane.

COOPER OVERWHELMED.

Attesting Signatures of Postal Bank Depositors a Long Job.

Secretary of the Territory Cooper got more than he bargained for when he issued his circular in regard to Postal Savings Bank depositors. By the terms of the circular he was to attest to the genuineness of the signatures of all the de-positors before the accounts would be balanced. As nearly 20,000 persons have made use of the Postal Savings Bank, and the Secretary would have to attest to as many signatures, he later found that he had a job on his hands which would cause him to work overtime for many days.

Furthermore, the Secretary has no personal knowledge of the signatures, and he will perforce have to take the O. K. mark of the bank clerks as a certificate that the signatures are the proper ones.
A large number of certificates of deposit have already been forwarded to Secretary Cooper, in which the signatures are vouched for by the clerks. Mr. Cooper will pass upon the certificates upon such showing being made for each signature.

Card of Thanks.

For the obliging offices rendered by kind friends during the last illness of our dear brother, Frederick B. Oat, for the condolence extended by them to us in our bereavement, and for the many beautiful floral tributes sent in testimony of regard for him whose loss we mourn, we desire to express our sincere gratitude.

Also, we desire to express our obligations to the Masonic fraternity, of which our late brother was a member; to the choir of Central Union Church, and to all that in any way lent their kind assistance and that attended and took part in the services at his funeral.

..TEAS..

INDIA, CEYLON, FORMOSA OOLONG, ENGLISH BREAKFAST, ORANGE PEKOE, PAN FIRED JAP (or GREEN), BASKET FIRED JAP (or BLACK LEAF), NATURAL LEAF (or SUN DRIED), YOUNG HYSON, GUNPOWDER, Etc.

And any blend that the most fastidious taste may demand. To some unfortunates any hot discolored decoction of withered leaves is "Tea." Tendering our profound compassion to this class of persons, we appeal to those who love a good cup of real tea.

Few good judges of tea are entirely satisfied with the qualities possessed by any one brand of tea, and seek to supply deficiencies by a mixture of different teas, technically called "blending."

With our experience of teas we can do this better than an amateur connoisseur, our large knowledge of teas guiding us with comparative certainty when the mere amateur blunders. If you are still looking for a tea that suits you, let us help you. We carry the most complete line of choice teas in the country.
